Royal Mathematical School
Christ's Hospital, 20th Jan^y. 1817.

Sir

Mr. John Septimus Roe, formerly a Boy educated on this Foundation, having produced some very well kept Log Books, containing views of Headlands, Harbours, Engagements, &c. together with Certificates of good conduct from the Officers under whom he has served in the Royal Navy, and having passed a fair examination in the Theory of Navigation, I beg leave to recommend him in the strongest terms to your kind notice for the usual compliment granted on such occasions.

I remain

Sir,

your very obedient humble Servant

(signed) J. S. Evans

To The Most Hon^{ble} Sir, Palmer Esq^r
Treasurer of Christ's Hospital.
