

Taken from History of Rebury by James Pove, M.A. Brasenose College, Oxford, instituted January 31st 1494. by presentation of King George 3rd. He was son of Theo James Pove of Macclesfield Co. Chester, and matriculated at Oxford 1444. age 18. Took his degree as B. A. 1481. and M. A. in 1493. His father who had been Incumbent of Disley in Cheshire was appointed Minister of Macclesfield in 1456. and held both livings till his death 1765. He was of St Johns College Cambridge
The son James afterwards of Rebury was baptized at Macclesfield 1458. His mother was Elizabeth Harper of Macclesfield and his parents were married at Putton near Macclesfield 1453. James Pove (your great great Grandfather)

Parson

The father of the Lezbury Pove was son of the Rev Thomas Pove, Vicar of Castleton co Derby.
Christ Church Macclesfield was erected in 1775, at the sole cost of Charles Pove Esq^r, uncle of Rector Lezbury, who endowed it with £100 per annum
for the Minister. Mr Pove who was a wealthy ~~Merchant~~ Manufacturer at Macclesfield died 1781; and on the South side of the chancel of Christ Church Macclesfield, in that town, there is a handsome monument, by Bacon, erected to the memory of Mr Charles Pove the founder of the church.
The monument is ornamented with devices emblematic of his mathematical genius and bears an inscription commemorative of his acquaintance with the mineral strata of the county, of his having discovered the valuable mine in the Isle of Anglesey, and established the copper works in the neighbourhood of Maccherfield.

The Mr James Ive called Parson Ive died July 9th 1838. Aged 80 and was the last Rector of Newbury instituted by a Bishop of Salisbury. At the time Mr Ive was presented to the living of Dorchester + Stou (near Mafford, & Wallingford) and he retained this appointment until his death - for the long period 53 years.
In 1866 Restoration of Newbury Church a Faculty was obtained to remove Tombs, (Coffins) in church

Person Bue's being one of them.
 Mr. Davis thinks we should find had been removed to outside Church just under East Window.

Capt the Hon G. S. Bue M. H., Surveyor-General of Western Australia, son of the Rev James Bue Rector of Newbury. He died in May 1848, aged 81, and as a mark of the appreciation in which he was held by his brother Colonists, the Governor-General directed that his remains should be honoured by a public public funeral, he was buried in Perth Cemetery, Australia.

Another son of the Rev James Bue Newbury, was a bookseller his shop was the Bridge where you looked at the water from in Newbury.