"Fair Western Land"

mp.

The musical score is written for a vocal soloist and a brass and drum ensemble. It is in the key of D major (two sharps) and common time (C). The tempo is marked Maestoso. The score consists of 16 measures, with lyrics provided for the vocal line. The vocal line is written in a single staff, while the brass and drums are written in two staves. The brass part features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The drum part is indicated by a single line with a 'D' and a star, suggesting a specific drum sound. The lyrics are: "Fair West-ern Land, one hund-red years have called to this hour Thy Star of Glo-ry now ap-pears in glow-ing grace-- and -- power--- On e--very hand we Stead-fast stand A prayer we hum-bly pray--- For the Vi-sion of To-- mor -- row in the". The score includes various musical markings such as mp., ff, rit, a tempo, cresc., and p. There are also dynamic markings like 8va and 8va with dashed lines, indicating octave transpositions. The score is written in a standard musical notation style with a treble and bass clef for the vocal and instrumental parts respectively.

VERSE I.

Fair Western Land, one hundred years
Have called thee to this hour.
Thy Star of Glory now appears
In glowing grace and power.
On every hand we steadfast stand—
A prayer we humbly pray
For the Vision of To-morrow
In the Splendour of To-day!

Refrain:—

Fair Western Land—still steadfast stand
That we of thine may pray
To-morrow's vision may not dim
The Splendour of To-day.

VERSE II.

Dear Western Land, one hundred years
Have run their measured span.
Bright jewel of twin hemispheres
Firm-set by might of man.
Thy people follow in the train
Of those who led the way,
And conquered terror, toil, and pain
One hundred years to-day.

Refrain:—Fair Western Land, etc.

VERSE III.

Fair Western Land: on this great day
All petty grief and care,
The turgid tide of routine grey
Ebbs from us unaware.
Fair Western Land, a dauntless band
We throng the Foreward Way.
Our Treasure Trove from those who strove
One hundred years to-day.

Refrain:—Fair Western Land, etc.
