HYMN OF AUSTRALIA.

GERTRUDE STANWAY TAPP.

Australia ! Land for greatness born,
Among Britannia's daughters ;
Dear golden land, with sun-bright strand,
Cradled in sapphire waters.
Knightly hearts beat high for thee,
Nation great which is to be,
Beautiful Australia !
Our own dear land.

Like ramparts strong we steadfast stand,
Our hearts and homes defending,
Yet ever stretch a brother hand
All other lands befriending.
Truth shall be our beacon bright,
Pointing upwards to the light,
Glorious Australia !
Our own dear land!

Australia's sons ! Guard well her shore
With hearts and hands united ;
To hold fair Peace for evermore,
To see all foul wrongs righted.
May war never stain thy name,
May we keep it free from shame,
Well-beloved Australia !
Our own dear land.

Such be our aim, our grand ideal,
Our patriot-dream of glory,
By which we all, through woe and weal,
Build up our country's story.
Through the Empire shout the sound,
Echo it the wide world round :
God defend Australia !
Our own dear land.
