

GARDINER.

Carmen

CHURCH OF ENGLAND GRAMMAR SCHOOL,
GUILDFORD, W.A.

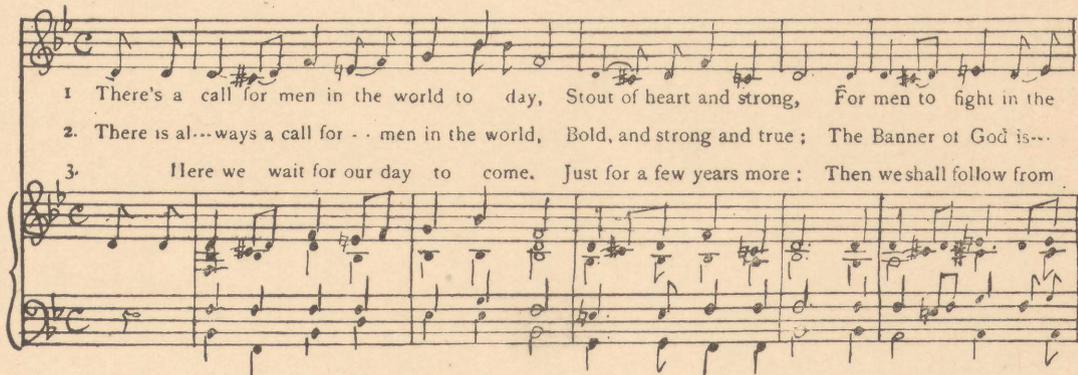

NOVEMBER, 1918.

Words by
Rev. P. U. HENN, M.A., (Headmaster).

CARMEN

Music by
H. VOWLES, F.R.C.O., L.A.B.
(Music Master)

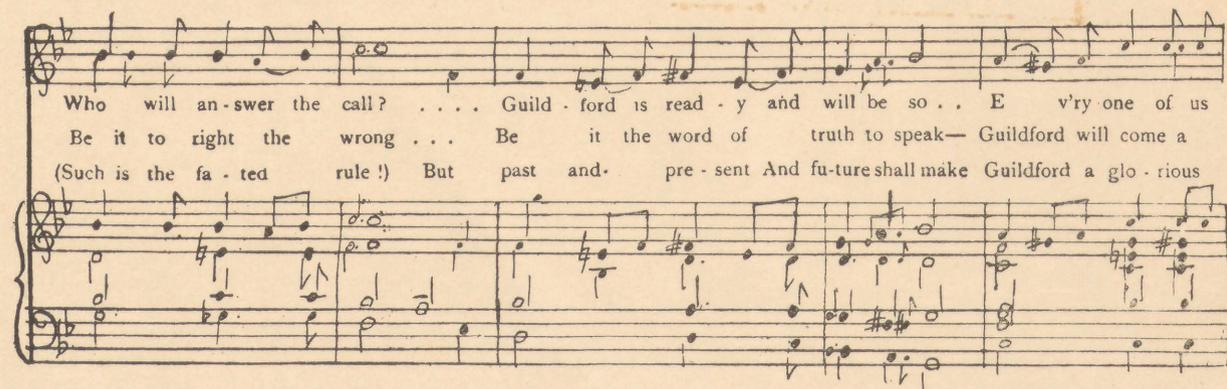

A SCHOOL SONG

1 There's a call for men in the world to day, Stout of heart and strong, For men to fight in the
2. There is al-ways a call for . . men in the world, Bold, and strong and true; The Banner of God is--
3. Here we wait for our day to come. Just for a few years more; Then we shall follow from thick of the fray, And bat tle a - gainst the wrong . . Where shall we find them? Who will go?

E-ver un-furled, He has al - ways a work to do Be it to help the poor and weak, school and home, The boys who have gone be - fore. O thers will come and our place will take,

Who will an - swer the call? . . . Guild - ford is read - y and will be so . . E v'ry one of us
Be it to right the wrong . . . Be it the word of truth to speak— Guildford will come a (Such is the fa - ted rule!) But past and - pre - sent And fu-ture shall make Guildford a glo - rious

CHORUS.

all . . .
long . . . St. George for Guild - ford and Guild - ford for the Right, Go School . . .

For - ward our watch - word and for - ward will we go, To the world's great bat - tle - field, The Red Cross on our shield, And the Li - lies of Our Lady, white as snow.

