PAGE 34—Add the name of Mr. L. F. Ridley to the Roll of Justices of the Peace.

PAGE 57—GOOD TEMPLARS—Light of the West Lodge.—Substitute C. G. H. Cooper, W.C.T.; W. G. Randell, W.V.T. Add—Rose of Perth Lodge, No. 3: W.C.T., S. M. Stout; W.V.T., Fras. J. Bourke. Also Lodges at Albany, York, and Fremantle.

PAGE 59—Add to Orphanages Bishop Hale's Native and Half-caste Institution. The orphanage is upon the grounds of Bishop's House, and was erected entirely at the expense of the Bishop of Perth. The larger number of the present inmates were originally maintained at the Native Institution at Albany, which was broken up shortly after the death of Mr. Camfield; and in accomplishment of His Lordship's first and greatest object, an institution in a central part of the colony is thus established, available for the reception of half-caste and native children, and which is, moreover, immediately under the Bishop's surveillance. Towards the support of this valuable public institution,—which would assuredly have collapsed had not His Lordship taken upon himself, at considerable personal expense and self-denial, to foster and give it the careful attention it required at a very critical period—the Government make a small daily allowance for each child. A good deal of the cost of the up-keep of the establishment—much more than the general public are aware of—is borne by the private purse of Bishop Hale. A considerable sum is annually raised by subscriptions; but for the present requirements of the institution, and more especially with a view to increasing its usefulness, appeals are made for still further liberality and public co-operation. The Superintendent of the Orphanage is Miss Sheperd. The number of the inmates is 19.
