Rose Marie • The Holy Christmas Child

O lit-tle chil-dren all take up the glad re - frain the Star of Beth-le - hem shines on the world again and men shall see it's light and lift their hearts a - bove. O Peace sweet Peace up-on the earth Good will to men and love O won-drous shining Star O lead us by thy light As wisemen from a - far were led that Christmas night, the night the an-gels sang of Je - sus meek and mild O Peace sweet Peace a Son is born The Ho - ly Christmas Child Then let your voic - es sing, O lit-tle chil-dren mild in loud Ho-san-nas to your King The Ho - ly Christ-mas Child.

• On Mothers' Day.

Pose Dance

He bought a small cream flower to me. My lit-tle lad two years and three "It's the on - ly one I could find" he said "and it is n't white, will it do in- stead"?

His an xious eyes searched clue in eag- er hope that his gift would do. then a for a gar- den of happ- i- ness blest our sight As I kissed the flo- wer that wasn't white _____.

• Look up, Dear Heart.

Rose Marie

Look up dear heart The world has so much sor-row. Brave hearts and hands are need-ed ev'ry hour to smile dear one and then perchance to-mor-row, On your hope's grave you'll find a bless-ed flower. A flower of un-der-stand-ing and of love. Bless-ed be-cause your tears have helped it grow.

Tend it well then give it to the world that o - thers, too, its per-fume sweet may know.
