

Layi manga yini pala Jayirn

A girl called Jane
by Tianna Buck

Layi manga yini pala Jayirn
A girl called Jane

by Tianna Buck

Layi manga yini parla Jayin yananiny pamarrkarti parlipinya pirra ngapa.

Once upon a time a girl called Jane was walking in the hills and then she saw a waterhole.

Yutwantiny mananga kaninyparrangu.

Jane sat under the tree.

Wirliwirli tarrapungani parlkarla warntani.

After, she was fishing and she caught a barramundi.

Tikirr yananiny ngurtikarti wangki yunganiny manya nyantukurra ngamaji jaa ngarpu.

She walked back to the car and talked to her family.

“Parlipinya marna purlkanyangu ngapa pamarrnga. Wajilpungku ngajan?”

Jane said “I found a waterhole over the hills. Do you want to follow me?”

Pujungurni palu wajilpinya.      So her family followed her.

Parlipinya kakaji ngalunga ngarnukarra pirninywarnti.

She found a goanna under the shade eating bugs.

Pinya palu kakaji kamparni palu, jaa ngarnirla palu.

They killed the goanna and they cooked it up and ate it.

Tikirr-yanirla palu ngapakarti ngamaji jaa ngarpukarti.

They went back to the waterhole where her family was.

Jayirn yaniny ngamaji jaa ngarpu karti wangki marniny palu.

Jane went to her Mother and Father and they talked for a little while.

Parlipinya jilpirtijarti palipinya palu kanyarla palunganangu parnanywarnti jaa purrkuwarntiwu.

She found a snake crawling on the road and they killed it to take it to the old people.

Kanarlanywarnti piyirnwarnti palu ngunangani ngapanga pirranga.

Some people were staying back at the waterhole.

Jayirnkura kakangu palipinya pinkirrijarti jiljinga.

Jane's Uncle found a turkey up in the sand-dunes.

Tikirryaniny palu warntarnupurru kanarlany warnti.

Then they went to pick the others up.

Tirriny yaniny palu ngapakarti marniny palurla “Walawu. Tikirryanku marnarlu kumanta.”

They passed the waterhole and said “Goodbye waterhole, we’ll be coming back tomorrow.”

