

Yukarnujuwal Jilpirtijarti

The Sleepy Snake

Pilpak kura Wangki

told by Ryan Thirkall

Yukarnujuwal Jilpirtijarti

The Sleepy Snake

Mangarriwu Wangki

Pilpak kura Wangki

Bush Tucker Stories told by Ryan Thirkall

Jarlu ngarrangarni layingu jilpirtijartingu parla muupungani nyantukurawu ngurra yukarnu purru.

A long time ago a big, sleepy snake was trying to find a home so he could go to sleep.

Jilpirtijarti: Manyankujarrirlany marnarla. Manyan marna yukalku.

Snake: "I'm so sleepy! I want to go to sleep!"

*Purlka yukarnujuwal jilpirtijartingu parlipinya ngalu mananga.
Yukarnani ngalunga.*

The big, sleepy snake found a home in the shade and had a rest.

Jilpirtijarti: “Yuwayi, minyarti pa wulyunyangu ngurra kirtirly nyangu ngurra.”

Snake: “Ahh, this is a lovely cool place to sleep.”

*Kara warra jarti wurrkal wurrkal walak yanani ngurra
muupungukarra parlipajal jilpirtijarti.*

Later in the afternoon a little green frog came up and she was looking for her home but there was a snake there.

Walak: "Ngajirtawu! Nyapurtu jarrinyana minyarti jilpirtijarti ngajukuranga ngurra?"

Frog: "Oh no! What's this snake doing near my house?"

Purkangu, jilpirtijartingu nyanya lamparn wurrkal wurrkal walak pajaniny pala.

The big, sleepy snake saw the little, green frog and bit it.

Walak: Warawu!"

Frog: "OWwww!"

*Ngarniny wurrkal wurrkal walak yani pala nyantukurakarti
ngurra manyan pala tujantinya.*

He ate up the little green frog and then he went to sleep at his new home.

*Jilpirtijarti: "Parlipinya marnajin ngurra manya marna yukalku.
Walawu!"*

Snake: "Now I've got a new home and I can have a long sleep. Goodnight!"

