

Yealering 1911. Sleeper cutters Edward Dew, Clarence Sibley & George Dew used a broad axe and a cross-cut hand saw. Payment was 20cents per sleeper. A good cutter could cut 100 sleepers per week.