Much Thunder & lightning with showers of rain - I have the melancholy task of recording the loss of my dear little infant son in his nineteenth month by an accident; he was sipping for a few minutes about the hour of ten this morning and alas! after searching for him in different directions Charlotte went to the well where he was found drowned we tried to restore animation for about five hours without success - the Lord had taken his spirit from him - it hath pleased him to bereave us of him - May we bear this affliction at his hand as we ought show to his holy will. we received kind attention from our neighbours the Turners. Alfred Bupple was staying with us.

rest & after Capt Cole taking leave of us proceeded to the Chapman River. I and Capt Molloy walking together the children, Charlotte, Dick with Kate & Felix, the Port Horses

May 1839th
Monday 8th Under Mr. Green and Wallace's care. It was very pleasant and the commencement of a grand undertaking. dear Molly removed every offending bush with his foot, first on one side & then on the other. Carried Baby, Amelia, and though grieving at leaving Augusta where I had spent so many wonderful years the time was so interesting and pleasant, so pleasant, it was the most perfect communion of pain and pleasure I have ever endured. I mounted at the Chobama stook Baby before me. Mary on Felicia & I sometimes riding & walking but my dearest Molly always on foot.
That evening reached the Bowling Green had most refreshing tea, shot a native dog & by Molly's exertions in pitching the canvas enjoyed the most delightful repose.

Thursday 9th Fine Day. Reached the Black Snake where it rained and made us very uncomfortable.

Friday 10th Fine. Arrived at the Paper about 2 o'clock P.M.
